As a professional photographer, it means so much to me, to share my work in this spiritual context with the Congregation of Beth Tzedec, where I grew up. And I share this photograph I took in honour of my dear, beloved late parents Selly Azar Benyes and Yasar Victor Benyes, whom I miss and cherish daily and who were an amazing source of encouragement to my creativity and inspiration in choosing to be an artist.

I have been a photographer since the age of 12, and though I've had the opportunity to photograph different genres over the years, along with exhibiting in galleries both here and abroad—my most personal work has merged my love of Spirituality with my art and revolved around the full moon for almost 20 years now. As I find myself shooting during the full moon wherever I am in the world, connecting to the different energies that occur in each new month (through Rosh Chodesh) and then capturing different landscapes both urban and natural with the light, essence and mystery of the full moon.

In this particular image entitled “Indigo Ocean”, I merge my love of the Divine with the beauty and awe I see in our world. Baruch Hachem Toda La El. Thank you so much for this lovely opportunity to share my work with the Beth Tzedec Congregation and community.

Wishing you all a year of great health, happiness, peace and prosperity and may we all be blessed with much love and healing for every living being and the world.

Much love & gratitude,
—Jacqueline Benyes

Introduction

We extend our warm and sincere condolences to all our members who have lost near and dear ones this past year. May the Holy One heal your wounds, lighten your burden of sorrow and give you renewed strength and consolation in the years ahead.

This Yizkor MEMORIAL BOOK, Prayer Poetry Memory, has a number of objectives. In addition to the obvious purpose of providing a book of prayers and other readings for the Yizkor and other services, it also provides an opportunity to our Congregational community to memorialize the names of loved ones and to practise one of the principal mitzvot of the Yizkor prayers, “in loving testimony to the life of the loved one pledging tzedakah to perpetuate the ideals important to the deceased”. Any errors or omissions are inadvertent, and we request your pardon if any have occurred. You may also wish to memorialize your loved ones by the dedication of a memorial plaque or a seat in the Synagogue Sanctuary.

This booklet is a prayer book that contains the name of God and should not be thrown out. You may take it for your personal use or return it.

THE READINGS IN THIS BOOK ARE TAKEN FROM:

Maḥzor for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, edited by Rabbi Jules Harlow, The Rabbinical Assembly, 1972.

Maḥzor Ḥadash, edited by Sidney Greenberg and Jonathan Levine, Prayer Book Press, 1995.

Siddur Sim Shalom, edited with translations by Rabbi Jules Harlow, The Rabbinical Assembly, 1985.

Maḥzor Ḥadesh Yameinu: Renew Our Days, edited and translated by Rabbi Ronald Aigen, 1996.

Maḥzor Lev Shalem, The Rabbinical Assembly, 2010.

Lev Shalem, The Rabbinical Assembly, 2015.

Dear Friends,

Yizkor is a time of memory. We gather together as a community four times a year to recall our personal loved ones who are no longer living and to remember communally members of our congregation, martyrs of our people and others who have impacted our lives.

We like to think that our ancestors chose these holidays for Yizkor because they understood the impact of what psychologists call the Anniversary Effect—the feelings of sadness, loss and anxiety that come from connecting the dots of the calendar to the narrative of our lives. Who among us doesn't note the place setting and people at our dining room tables that are missing? We all do. We gather, therefore, together on these days to pray, to remember and to rededicate ourselves to the values we learned from our loved ones through Yizkor.

The act of simply being together on Yizkor is quite a powerful experience. As we look around we know that we are not alone; all of us are touched by loss. As the Psalmist says, we must all eventually, “walk through the valley of the shadow of death” (Psalm 23:4).

A common question regarding the practice of Yizkor is “do I stay or do I leave?” The Ashkanazi custom we are most familiar with is that if one's parents are living, and you have not otherwise been touched by loss, then you should not remain for the service. The bubbemeise (folktale) regarding this custom is that if we remain for Yizkor, we invite the Ayin Hara (Evil Eye) to cause trouble. This is a custom, however, it is not Halakhah (Jewish law). Further, since some of the prayers of Yizkor are communal in nature, such as the prayer for congregants who have passed, or the El Malay Rahamim for victims of the Shoah and for other martyrs of our people—those who leave are not afforded an opportunity to participate.

In other words, whether one chooses to stay for Yizkor or to leave is a personal choice. For some of us, that choice includes sensitivity to the customs of our parents and grandparents. One is not obligated to stay. Nor is one obligated to leave. When we commemorate Yizkor together this year, please choose the custom you find most meaningful.

We hope that this Yizkor Booklet will be a source of inspiration to you and your family. May you find comfort in the words of our liturgy, supplemental readings and the energy of being together in community. Hag Sameah from our families to yours.

Kaddish (A Poem)

Look around us, search above us, below, behind.

We stand in a great web of being joined together.
Let us praise, let us love the life we are lent
passing through us in the body of Israel
and our own bodies, let's say Amen.

*Time flows through us like water.
The past and the dead speak through us.
We breathe out our children's children, blessing.*

Blessed is the earth from which we grow,
blessed the life we are lent,
blessed the ones who teach us,
blessed the ones we teach,
blessed is the word that cannot say the glory
that shines through us and remains to shine flowing past distant suns on the way to forever.
Let's say Amen.

*Blessed is the light, blessed is darkness,
but blessed above all else is peace
which bears the fruits of knowledge on strong branches, let's say Amen.*

Peace that bears joy into the world,
peace that enables love, peace over Israel
everywhere, blessed and holy is peace, let's say Amen.

A Prayer For Those Blessed With Living Parents

*The following prayer may be recited by those blessed by having their parents still living
while others are reciting Yizkor.*

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, at this solemn moment I raise my eyes to You, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart, thank You for Your mercy in having preserved the life of my beloved father and/or mother.

May it be Your will, O Lord my God and the God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their love, affection, and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe to them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your divine spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to You and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart.

Amen

Tzedakah/Charity

The Yizkor service was called seder matnat yad, the service of expressing generosity on behalf of those who have died. That name comes from the closing line of the Torah reading for the final day of the pilgrimage festivals (when Yizkor is recited): “Every person giving a gift according to the blessing they have received from The Eternal.” (Deuteronomy 16:17) Offering charitable gifts and performing acts of justice, love and care in memory of those who have died provide us with ways of honouring their memory and continuing their influence for good.

WE RECALL

Some of us recall parents who gave us life, who cared for us and nurtured us and who taught us to take our first steps on our own.

Some of us remember a wife, husband, or partner – our friend and lover – with whom we shared so much of our lives, our failures and achievements, joys and sorrows, intimate secrets.

Some of us recall brothers and sisters, who matured together with us, sometimes competing with us and sometimes encouraging us on, bound to us by a life-long relationship.

Some of us remember children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives. Their memory is always with us.

Many of us recall relatives who knew us, teachers who affected us and beloved friends who walked beside us in life, guiding us, listening to us, supporting us.

Our lives are shaped by those who were alongside us as we walked on our path.

May our inheritance impel us to strive to live lives of holiness and service. May memories of love inspire us to love, may painful memories impel us to mitigate the pain others experience. And may we be granted the strength to affirm life's meaning, even in the face of death.

Preludes to Yizkor

Though I stared earnestly at my fingernail
Yesterday when I was on the #7 bus
I happened to look at the cuticle of my right forefinger and for a moment I thought not that it was mine but that it was my father's—

The same small confusion I have from time to time when I catch sight of my daughter in her denim skirt, size 3,
and I feel lean, willowy, in her clothes.

So there I was on the #7 bus overtaken by a longing very close to love staring at the cuticle of my right forefinger.

I remembered how clean and short he kept his nails and suddenly there was the whole man reconstituted from a fingernail
standing before me, smiling broadly,
his face flushed with pleasure.

But then just as suddenly he was gone
and though I stared earnestly at my fingernail
I failed to bring him back.

To Begin Again

In the years since my father's death, I have learned to trust, to hope, and to laugh again. After my first marriage, I somehow learned how to open my eyes, my heart, and my arms again. Throughout our lives we will, we should, feel the pain of our losses, the scars still present even after much time has passed. But we will also feel the strength of our spirit, the ability to persevere in the face of pain, the power to dream despite the many nightmares of existence, the stamina to push forward into the future carrying our past with us all the while. This is the power of God within us. This is our hope, our salvation. This is how we begin again.

—NAOMI LEVY

Remembering

*Someone laughs a certain way and suddenly I am seeing you.
The radio plays a song you used to love—and it feels as if you're here listening.
The evening light glistens on the trees and my heart stings,
after so many years, with the loss of you.
The whole family gathers together... and each of us quietly feels the absence of you.*

Holy One on high, Holy One of our inmost being,
some of us are consoled for our loss,
some of us today feel still inconsolable.
Some of us bear deep wounds in our heart;
other hearts have healed.

All of us remember, today, those we loved who no longer share with us this land of the living:

Grandmothers and grandfathers, mothers and fathers,
sons, daughters, sisters, brothers,
beloved husbands, wives, partners, cherished relatives and friends,
sorely missed members of our congregation.

*Eternal One, what are we human beings, that You should take note of us?
What are we frail mortal creatures,
that You should even consider us?
We are like breath; our days like a passing shadow.*

I am mindful of how brief life is
For to be human is to see death.

*How grateful we are for the once-presence of those we loved!
To have touched their soul, to have looked in their eyes,
to have felt their hand.
Life matters.*

Oh, teach us to number our days that we may attain a wise heart.
That we may remember and mourn those we have lost and still celebrate the gift of their lives, the gift of life.
God, my God, You are my Rock and my ultimate Refuge.
I put my trust in You.

יי מֶה־אָדָם וַתִּדְעֶהוּ בֶן־אָנוּשׁ וַתַּחֲשִׁבֵהוּ.
 אָדָם לְהֵבֵל דָּמָה יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
 בַּבֶּקֶר יִצְיֵן וְחֶלֶף לָעָרֶב יִמּוּלֵל וַיֵּבֶשׁ.
 תָּשִׁב אָנוּשׁ עַד־דָּכָא וַתֹּאמֶר שׁוּבוּ בְנֵי־אָדָם.
 שׁוּבָה יי עַד־מָתִי וְהִנַּחֵם עַל־עַבְדֶּיךָ.

Eternal, what is human life that You should care about it, mere mortals, that You should think of them?

People are like a breath; our days are like a passing shadow.
 At daybreak it flourishes anew; by dusk it withers and dries up.
 You return people to dust; You decree, "Return you, mortals!"
 Turn, O Eternal One! How long? Show mercy to Your servants.

—SELECTED FROM PSALMS 90 AND 144

There is a time for everything; there is a time for all things under the sun:

*a time to be born and a time to die
 a time to laugh and a time to cry
 a time to dance and a time to mourn
 a time to seek and a time to lose a time to forget and a time to remember.*

This day in sacred convocation we remember those who gave us life.

This day we remember those who enriched our life with love and beauty, kindness and compassion, thoughtfulness and understanding.

This day we renew the bonds that bind us to those who have gone the way of all the earth.

As we reflect upon those whose memory moves us this day, we seek consolation, and the strength and the insight born of faith.

Tender as a parent with children, the Eternal is merciful with us.

*God knows how we are fashioned;
 God remembers that we are dust.*

The days of people are as grass;
 we flourish as a flower in the field.

*The wind passes over it and it is gone,
 and no one can recognize where it grew.*

But God's compassion for us,
Divine righteousness to children's children,
remain, age after age, unchanging.

*Three score and ten our years may number,
four score years if granted the vigour.*

Laden with trouble and travail,
life quickly passes, it flies away.

*Teach us to use all of our days, O God,
that we may attain a heart of wisdom.*

Grant us of Your love in the morning,
that we may joyously sing all our days.

שׁוֹיִתִּי יי לְנִגְדֵי תָמִיד כִּי מִיְמִינִי בַל־אֶמוּט.
לְכֵן שָׂמַח לְבִי וַיִּגַּל כְּבוֹדֵי אֱלֹהֵי בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁכֵּן לְבַטָּח.

I am ever mindful of the Eternal presence;
God is at my right hand; I shall never not be shaken.
So My heart rejoices, my whole being exults and my body rests secure.

— SELECTED FROM PSALM 16

אֲנֹשׁ כִּחְצִיר יָמָיו כְּצִיץ הַשָּׂדֶה כֵּן יִצְיָץ.
כִּי רוּחַ עֲבָרָה־בוֹ וְאֵינָנוּ וְלֹא־יִכְרְנוּ עוֹד מְקוֹמוֹ.
וַחֲסֹד יְהוָה | מֵעוֹלָם וְעַד־עוֹלָם עַל־יְרֵאָיו וְצִדְקָתוֹ לְבְנֵי־בָנִים:

Mortals, their days are like those of grass; they bloom like a flower of the field. A wind passes by and it is no more; its own place no longer knows it. But the steadfast love of God is for all eternity for those who revere the Eternal; and God's beneficence is for children's children.

— SELECTED FROM PSALM 103

When I stray from You, Eternal my God, my life is as death;
but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

*But only the dust returns to dust;
the soul, which is God's, is immortal.*

The Holy One has compassion for us.

God has planted eternity within our soul, granting us a share in the unending life of the Eternal One.

God redeems our life from the grave.

During our brief life on earth, the Holy One gives us choices.

We can cherish hopes, embrace values and perform deeds which death cannot destroy.

May we be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

*Generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is as strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children.
Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.*

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, and by precious memories which comfort and sustain us, as we recall them this day.

WE RISE

Each person reads silently the appropriate passages among those which follow. Personal meditations may also be added.

May God remember the souls of our fellow Jews, martyrs of our people, who gave their lives for the sanctification of God's name. In their memory do I pledge tzedakah. May their bravery, dedication and purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. And may they rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

In Memory of Congregants who Died During the Past Year

We lovingly recall the members of our Congregation who have passed away since we last gathered in this Sanctuary. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength. Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this Congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values in the lives of those who are no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall today. May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

In Memory of Our Departed

אל מלא רחמים שוכן במרומים, המצא מנוחה נכונה תחת כנפי השכינה, במעלות קדושים וטהורים, כזהר הרקיע מאירים ומזהירים:

• ואת נשמות הטהורים שנהרגו על-ידי מחבלים;
• ואת נשמות חילי קנדה שעמדו נגד אויבינו;
• ואת נשמות יש מאות רבבות אלפי ישראל, אנשים, נשים, וטף,
שנהרגו, שנאבדו, שנחנקו, שנשחטו, ונשרפו באש, ושנקברו חיים על קדוש השם.

בעבור שאנחנו כלנו מתפללים בעד הזכרת נשמותיהם, בגן עדן תהא
מנוחתם. אנא בעל הרחמים יסתירם בסתר כנפיו לעולמים. ויצרור
בצרור החיים את נשמותיהם. יי הוא נחלתם: יזכור עקדתם ויגווחו בשלוש על משכבותם, ונאמר: אמן.

Exalted and Merciful God, grant perfect peace in Your Presence among the holy and pure whose light shines as the brightness of heaven:

- To the souls of all our departed, whose memories we have just recalled in our Memorial Prayers;
- To the souls of the departed of our holy Congregation Beth Tzedec and their families that we remember here today.
- To the souls of our brothers and sisters, the soldiers of the Israel Defence Forces, who gave up their lives for the sanctification of Your Holy Name, in defence of our people and Land; they were swifter than eagles and stronger than lions;
- To the souls of all those killed by terrorists;
- To the souls of the soldiers of Canada and the Allies, who stood against our enemies;
- and to the souls of the six million martyrs of Israel, men, women, boys and girls, who were murdered, gassed, lost or buried alive, for the sanctification of your Holy Name.

They have all gone to their eternal home. We remember them and pray that their souls rest in Paradise. Master of compassion, shelter them forever. May their memory endure as an inspiration for deeds of truth, loyalty and kindness. Thus may their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal One is their inheritance; remember their sacrifice and may they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

יְיָ רֹעִי לֹא אֶחָסֵר:

The Eternal is my shepherd, I shall not want.

בְּנֵאֲוֹת דְּשָׂא יְרֵבִיצְנִי עַל־מֵי מְנַחֲוֹת יִנְהַלְנִי:

God gives me repose in green pastures.

Leading me beside still waters.

נִפְשִׁי יְשׁוּבֵב יִנְחֵנִי בְּמַעְגְלֵי־צַדִּיק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ:

God revives my spirit and guides me in paths of righteousness for that is God's essence.

גַּם כִּי־אֵלֶךְ בְּגֵיאַת צַלְמוֹת לֹא־אִירָא רָע כִּי־אֵתָהּ עִמָּדִי

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me.

שֶׁבֶטְךָ וּמִשְׁעַנְתֶּךָ הֵמָּה יִנְחֵמְנִי:

Your rod and Your staff comfort me.

תַּעֲרֹךְ לִפְנֵי שְׁלַחַן נֹגֵד צָרָרִי

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my foes.

דִּשְׁנַת בַּשֶּׁמֶן רֹאשִׁי כּוֹסֵי רוּיָהּ:

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

אֵךְ טוֹב וְחֶסֶד יִרְדְּפוּנִי כָּל־יְמֵי חַיִּי

May goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life.

וְשָׁבְתִי בְּבֵית־יְיָ לְאָרְךָ יָמַיִם:

So that I dwell in the House of the Eternal forever.

A YIZKOR MEDITATION

In Memory of a Relative Who Was Hurtful

Dear God,

You know my heart. Indeed you know me better than I know myself, so I turn to you before I rise for kaddish.

My emotions swirl as I say this prayer. The person I remember was not kind to me. His/her death left me with a legacy of unhealed wounds, of anger and dismay that a loved one could hurt someone as I was hurt.

I do not want to pretend to love, or to feel grief that I do not feel, but I do want to do what is right as a Jew.

Help me, O God, to subdue my bitter emotions that do me no good, and to find that place in myself where happier memories may be hidden and where grief for all that could have been may be calmed by forgiveness, or at least soothed by the passage of time.

I pray that You who raise up slaves to freedom, will liberate me from the oppression of my hurt and anger and that You will lead me from the desert to Your holy place. —ROBERT SAKS

Names

Each of us has a name
given by the Source of Life
and given by our parents.
Each of us has a name
given by our stature and our smile and given by
what we wear.
Each of us has a name
given by the mountains
and given by our walls.
Each of us has a name
given by the stars
and given by our neighbours.
Each of us has a name

given by our sins
and given by our longing.
Each of us has a name
given by our enemies
and given by our love.
Each of us has a name
given by our celebrations
and given by our work.
Each of us has a name
given by our seasons
and given by our blindness.
Each of us has a name
given by the sea
and given by our death.

Hallowed and enhanced may God be throughout the world of creation. May God's sovereignty soon be accepted, during our life and the life of all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May God be praised throughout all time.

Glorified and celebrated, lauded and praised, acclaimed and honoured, extolled and exalted may the Holy One be, far beyond all song and psalm, beyond all tributes which humans can utter. And let us say: Amen.

Let there be abundant peace from Heaven, with life's goodness for us and for all the people of Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May the One who brings peace to the universe bring peace to us and to all the people of Israel. And let us say: Amen.

Kaddish

The central message of the kaddish is contained in the phrase, “May God’s sovereignty soon be accepted,” v’yamlikh malkhuteth. The Aramaic phrase makes double use of the root m-l-kh, to rule. The Sages used the expression of malkhut shamayim “the yoke of the Sovereignty of Heaven,” to express the idea that each of us must accept the rulership of God as individuals. Aleinu speaks of the entire world accepting this in the phrase l’takken olam b’malkhut Shaddai, “perfect the world by Your sovereignty”. The proclamation of God as Sovereign — melekh — is found first in the Torah in the Song at the Sea, where the Israelites proclaim “Adonai shall reign throughout all time”. Many of the psalms repeat the theme — “Adonai is Sovereign!” (Psalms 96, 97, 99). It is no wonder that the Sages insisted that every blessing we utter must include the phrase melekh ha-olam, “Ruler of the universe”. Although God is the Sovereign, the supreme Ruler of the universe, the prophets also dreamt of a time when this fact would be recognized by all: “Adonai shall be acknowledged Ruler of all the earth” (Zechariah 14:9). That will be the true realization of God’s rulership and that is what we pray for in the kaddish.

Although this concept has apocalyptic implications, it also has immediate application. God’s rule over the earth is established when we transform the world — tikkun olam — by our actions into the place that God envisioned when creating it: “And God saw all that He had made, and found it very good” (Genesis 1:31). When we eradicate poverty and suffering, when we eliminate wars, strife and contention, when we create equality among all races and establish societies in which all may live in peace and contentment, we are bringing about the Sovereignty of Heaven on earth.

The kaddish is an ancient expression of praise of God and hope for the establishment of God's sovereignty (malkhut shamayim) on earth. It was recited originally at the conclusion of study and reading of Torah. It became associated with mourners because the honour of reciting it at certain times was given to mourners. The Mourner's Kaddish has no mention of death or mourning since this was not its original purpose. By reciting these words of praise and hope, the mourner expresses faith in God even at a most difficult time, the time of terrible loss. In the midst of darkness, we seek light. At a time of doubt, we search for certainty. Overcome by sorrow, we find strength in the knowledge of God that gives meaning to our lives, no matter how brief.

Nothing challenges our belief in God so much as the death of someone we love. The sorrow of this loss overwhelms us. When the death is that of a young person, or is the result of a particularly painful illness, accident or acts of cruelty and war, the pain may be especially deep; but even in the best of circumstances, it is difficult to cope with death. Coming together as a congregation or a community is in itself a measure of comfort, helping us to overcome the sense of loss and aloneness. Reciting these ancient words, above and beyond their specific meaning, is also a way of connecting ourselves to those we have lost and of creating a feeling of life's value and meaningfulness. The words themselves are an expression of the belief that human life is not the peak of consciousness in the universe and such belief gives meaning to our lives. As brief as our lives may be, they are part of the existence of a consciousness greater than our own: the God who is, in the phrase coined by the Sages, חי עולמים (hei olamim), the One who lives forever — the life-force of the universe.

Last Day

If I only knew
I would have brought you scents of happiness

If I only knew
That the pain will accompany it all

If only I was less selfish
And more attentive to you

If I only knew
It is our last day

I would have done it all differently for sure

I would have given all of me without
questioning

I would have kept kissing you without
stopping

I would have wanted you here all the time

I would have wrapped you in presents
And not cry like a baby deserted in the fields

If I only knew
It is the last day

If I only knew that I will open my eyes
And not see you for a moment

I could never bear it

If I only knew

That love will accompany it all

If I only knew

It is our last day

If I would have done it all differently for sure
I would have given all of me without
questioning

I would have kept kissing you without
stopping

I would have wanted you here all the time

I would have wrapped you in presents

And not cry like a baby deserted in the fields

I would have done it all differently for sure

I would have given all of me without
questioning

I would have kept kissing you without
stopping

And wrapped you endlessly with hugs

And give you my all without wanting to receive everything

If I only knew

It is the last day

If I only knew

It is the last day

Sacred Pilgrimage

Birth is a beginning
and death a destination.
And life is a journey:
From childhood to maturity
And youth to age;
From innocence to awareness
And ignorance to knowing;
From foolishness to discretion,
And then, perhaps, to wisdom;
From weakness to strength
Or strength to weakness—
And often, back again;
From health to sickness
And back, we pray, to health again;
From offense to forgiveness,
From loneliness to love,
From joy to gratitude,
From pain to compassion,
And grief to understanding—
From fear to faith;
From defeat to defeat to defeat—
Until, looking backward or ahead,
We see that victory lies
Not at some high place along the way,
But in having made the journey, stage by stage,
A sacred pilgrimage.
Birth is a beginning
And death a destination.
And life is a journey,
A sacred pilgrimage...

Surviving Has Made Me Crazy

I eat flowers now and birds follow me.
I open myself like an inlet
and dolphin energies swim on through.

Wherever I go, I remain silent and the silence begins to glow
till one eye in the light
outsees two in the dark.

When asked, I now hesitate
for there are so many ways to love the earth.

I water things now constantly:
water the hearts of dead friends with light,
the sores of the living with anything warm,
water the skies with a thousand affections
and follow the voices of animals
into grasses that move like ocean.

I eat flowers now and birds come.
I eat care and things to love arrive.
I eat time and as I age
whatever I swallow grows timeless.

I eat and undie
and water my doubts
with silence
and birds come.

—MARK NEPO

From I Wake

There can be no revenge
only relief
from a tension wound
across an era;
a tension strung
like an imperceptible copper leash
through the corner of every Jewish soul.

Who can say Kaddish for six million
without ever mentioning the dead?
Yahrzeit marks every calendar I know,
anniversaries of death outnumber the constellations,
the very planet marred
by a continent of scars,
and only if the tissue
of every conscience
is seared;
only if for a century
we rub our lids with light;
only then might we not bleed in thought

—CHARLES FISHMAN

My Father Commanded Me Not to Die

But my father, before he died, commanded me not to die.

Never to stop breathing.

Only to seem silent, while my soul secretly continues to be suspended in the ether.

So I go on living. I will not stop living. Neither non-existence nor fear, nor closely-knit woven gloom, its cloth cloaking the sun, will make me tremble,

Not the emptiness with which my loved ones leave me, silently taken one by one.

I continue to breathe and with my breath, I give life to birds, wild beasts, Shreds of sky, clumps of clay.

—RIVKA MIRIAM

Kaddish

Upon Israel and upon the rabbis and upon the disciples and upon all the disciples of their disciples and upon all who study the Torah in this place and in every place,
to them and to you
peace;

upon Israel and upon all who meet with unfriendly glances,
sticks and stones and names –
on posters, in newspapers, or in books to last,
chalked on asphalt or in acid on glass,
shouted from a thousand thousand windows by radio;
who are pushed out of classrooms and rushing trains,
whom the hundred hands of a mob strike,
and whom jailers strike with bunches of keys, with revolver butts;
to them and to you
in this place and in every place
safety;

upon Israel and upon all who live
as the sparrows of the streets
under the cornices of the houses of others,
and as rabbis
in the fields of strangers
on the grace of the seasons
and what the gleaners leave in the corners;
you children of the wind –
birds
that feed on the tree of knowledge
in this place and in every place,
to them and to you
a living;

upon Israel
and upon their children and upon all the children of their children
in this place and in every place,
to them and to you
life.

—CHARLES REZNIKOFF

A Person Doesn't Have Time

A person doesn't have time in life
to have time for everything.
One doesn't have seasons enough to have a season for every purpose. Ecclesiastes was wrong about that.

A person needs to love and to hate at the same moment,
to laugh and cry with the same eyes,
with the same hands to throw stones and to gather them,
to make love in war and war in love.

And to hate and forgive and remember and forget,
to arrange and confuse, to eat and to digest
what history
takes years and years to do.

A person doesn't have time,
When he loses he seeks, when he finds
he forgets, when he forgets he loves, when he loves
he begins to forget.

And a soul is seasoned, a soul
is very professional.
Only the body remains forever
an amateur. It tries and it misses, gets muddled, doesn't learn a thing,
drunk and blind in its pleasures
and in its pains.

We will die as figs die in autumn,
shriveled and full of ourselves and sweet,
the leaves growing dry on the ground,
the bare branches already pointing to the place where there's time for everything.

— YEHUDAH AMICHAI

Waiting

I never think of myself as waiting for you,
But then when the holiday has come and gone,
When I'm packing up the Pesah dishes
Or taking down the sukkah,
I feel hopeless and alone.

inconsolable.

Then I realize
I've left a small corner
somewhere deep inside myself
unpainted,
and in that small corner,
I'm still a child,
a little girl,
waiting.

And I had hoped without knowing it
that this hag
you'd come.

My tears fall on the Pesah dishes
and I wonder why you've left me here
alone.

—MERLE FELD

Four Children, Four Questions

Tam is who you were.
Simple and whole.
You asked, “What is this?”
I needed to know,
but was too sophisticated to ask.
Now belatedly, I wonder,
what is this . . . seder?
what is this . . . life?
what is this . . . death?
what is this . . . God?

Wise is who you were.
You wanted to know every little thing there is to know to serve God.
Details, you wanted details.
We thought your mind was narrow
when it was simply in love.
Now I miss your intense yearning
for your beloved,
content to be restrained by “no”
or liberated by “yes”.

Wicked is who you were.
You just couldn’t stop pushing,
rejecting.
Did I owe you patience or impatience?
I still don’t know.
Your rage chased away my love
more than once.
You did provoke something in me,
though,
I wish I had known how to love you and I wish you had known
how to love me.

Unable to ask is who you were.
It was up to me to open up for you

The questions of life I wished
You could ask.
Not only to lighten my burden
though I can’t deny that was true,
but so you could say your beauty
to us, to your world.
You were my mystery.
To find you
I had to study hard
at the school of gentleness.

In truth, it is not for me to judge who you were
and anyway
I cannot begin to know.

You may have been
a whole new number,
the fifth
or sixth
or seventh child,
a new creation,
inviting the sea
to split upon God’s command not into upper and lower
but one side facing the other.
Then we,
whole worlds,
could stumble through,
toward our redemptions
great and simple.

The Book of Ruth and Naomi

When you pick up the Tanakh
and read
the Book of Ruth, it is a shock
how little it resembles memory.
It's concerned with inheritance,
Lands, men's names, how women
Must wiggle and wobble to live.

Yet women have kept it dear for the beloved elder who cherished Ruth, more friend than daughter. Daughters leave. Ruth brought even the baby she made with Boaz home as a gift.

Where you go, I will go too,
your people shall be my people,
I will be a Jew for you,
for what is yours I will love
as I love you, oh Naomi
my mother, my sister, my heart.

Show me a woman who does not dream
a double, heart's twin, a sister of the mind in whose ear she can whisper,
whose hair she can braid as her
life,
twist its pleasure and pain and shame.
Show me a woman who does not hide

in the locket of bone that deep eye beam of fiercely gentle love
she had once from mother,
daughter,
sister; once like a warm moon
that radiance aligned the tides
of her blood into potent order.

At the season of first fruits, we recall
two travellers, co-conspirators, scavengers
making do with leftovers and mill
ends,
whose friendship was stronger
than fear,
stronger than hunger, who walked together,
the road of shards, hands joined.

—MARGE PIERCY

On Shavuot

Spring roses bloom,
fragrant with heady Torah,
layers of sevens fluttering
as we enter
our huppah
with God.
My teachers, you escort me.

You taught me
first words,
first songs,
first steps;
You taught me
the slow craft
of doing work well.

You taught me the patience
to sketch my thoughts;
You taught me rules
which I broke and then mended.

You taught me impatience
with what is unjust.
You taught me to listen for truth
and to seek it.

You taught me life lessons
before they could hurt me;
You comforted me when they did;
You were my best listener.

You taught me to hurry
to do a mitzvah;
that inconvenience
in service of others
is blessed.
You escort me still,
as you always did.

You taught me that books
catch living voices.
You smiled inwardly
as I learned
what has long been known.

Your presence taught me
to breathe with another;
to notice their pain
and to be,
just be near.

On this splendid day,
of hearing sights, seeing noise,
of great laws,
noble truths,
I thank you
for moments of learning,
still open
and opening.

This rose
of learning
I accept as your student,
I will plant and tend it
in your name.
It will release
to the air
its rare essence
stirred by the passing
of its great gardeners.
